Exploring the Pharmacist's Role in Oncology
Greenville Memorial Hospital

Pooja Shah, PharmD, PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice Resident
Bradley Yelvington, PharmD, PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice Resident
Michael Wagner, PharmD, PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice Resident

February 20, 2016
Registration: 8:30am-9am
9:00am-12:30pm
Greenville Memorial Hospital Conference Center 1

Tuition:
No Charge for GHS Staff and SCSHP Members (Use Coupon Code – see supervisor)
All Others--$50

Target Audience:
Pharmacists

This is a knowledge based activity

Pre-Registration Is Required!

Register at:
http://sccp.learningexpressce.com

Educational Objectives:
ACPE: 0062-9999-16-022-L01-P
At the completion of this activity, the participant will be able to:

1. Discuss advancements of cancer treatment in regards to oral chemotherapy
2. Identify administration and adherence challenges related to oral chemotherapy
3. Evaluate strategies to manage pertinent drug interactions and common adverse reactions with oral chemotherapy
4. Review common complications of chemotherapy and the drugs most commonly associated with them
5. Apply knowledge of commonly used agents to select optimal patient specific therapy
6. Describe the pharmacist's role in identification and management of oncologic emergencies
7. Identify appropriate therapeutic recommendations for the treatment of hypercalcemia, tumor lysis syndrome, spinal cord compression, infusion and hypersensitivity reactions and extravasation
8. Apply oncologic emergency treatment principles and guidelines when presented a patient case